PRICING & RESERVATION PROCEDURE

Pricing

To facilitate your accommodation planning during the event, below is an indicative range of starting prices for hotel rooms in Marrakech.

Hotel Category	Starting Price (per night, BB)
5-star hotels	From 1800 MAD
4-star hotels	From 1400 MAD
3-star hotels	From 850 MAD

Note: All rates are based on Bed & Breakfast (BB) accommodation and may vary depending on availability and booking dates.

Reservation Procedure

To ensure a smooth and well-organized reservation process for participants of the XIX World Water Congress, two booking options are available:

Option 1 – Online Booking:

Participants may reserve their rooms directly via the official booking links provided for each hotel. These links are available on the Congress website: www.worldwatercongress.com

Option 2 – Direct Request:

Participants may also send their reservation request by email or via WhatsApp using the following contact details:

✉ Email: XIXWWC.Hotels@outlook.com

☎ WhatsApp/Phone: +212 7 67 79 75 23

(Kindly include "XIXWWC" in the subject line of your email or message.)

To benefit from the special preferential rates, participants are strongly encouraged to book their accommodation as soon as possible. Availability is limited, and rates are expected to rise as the event date approaches.

Important:

- Bookings made outside the provided links or official contact may not benefit from the discounted rates.
- You may be asked to provide your Congress registration confirmation during the reservation process.

Note

To ensure a smooth and enjoyable experience for all participants of the XIX World Water Congress, organized shuttle transportation will be provided throughout the event period.

This service will ensure daily transfers between the official venue, the Pickalbatros Hôtel du Golf – and a series of designated pick-up points located near the main hotels and some of the most popular areas in Marrakech.

Clearly defined routes and schedules will be communicated, offering convenient and reliable transfers from your nearest pick-up location to the Congress venue. The service is also designed to facilitate access to key areas of the city, allowing attendees to explore Marrakech between sessions if desired.

For more details, please visit the "Transportation" page.
